JOHN FOX RECAPTURED.

THE WILY JAIL-BREAKER IN LIMBO AGAIN.

Captured in the Sac and Fox Country by Turnley T. D. Jackson, Prisoner Fugitive still at Large.

John Fox, the foxy prisoner who escaped from the county jail on last Monday night with a colored prisoner named William Frazier, alias Moses Lyle, exclusive mention of which was made in THE LEADER, is behind the bars again and now occupies quarters in a secure and remote cell in the basement from which he escaped.

Fox was recaptured yesterday morning in the Sac and Fox country by Turnley T. D. Jackson, the man whom the jail birds sounded when they sought liberty.

Jackson determined to recapture Fox and he began a still hunt, as he thought. Fox struck out for the Sac and Fox country under the impression that he would not be followed. He reckoned without his host, however, and Jackson was hot on the fugitive's trail in few hours and his arrest was an easy matter.

It will be remembered that Fox was brought into district court about two weeks ago on the charge of stealing horses in two cases. During his trial he showed unmistakable symptoms of being "off his base," and subsequently he was adjudged insane by the court. Sheriff Painter had perfected all arrangements for taking Fox to the Jacksonville, Ill., insane asylum when the jail delivery occurred. A reward of $10 was offered for his recapture.

Frazier, or Lyle, is still at large, and there are no clues to his whereabouts. Sheriff Painter has offered $50 reward for his return. Lyle is a dangerous criminal and should be captured.

Turnley Jackson is a painstaking official, and hereafter will see that all holes are corked when he feeds his birds.

FUN AT NORTH END.

A Great Tangle in the Municipal Election — Records Missing.

The recent election and municipal entanglement at North End has brought about some humorous occurrences.

When the new officers attempted to take control they found themselves without the records of the city clerk or the books and money of the city treasurer.

It was learned that the clerk had deposited with the probate judge a package for safe keeping and the new officers, supposing it to be the much coveted records, at once made a demand on Judge Thompson for the package, who, after getting the consent of the old clerk, delivered it to the new officers, who were highly elated over their first victory in the municipal fight. The package was well guarded during the day and was produced during the meeting of the council.

The contents of the package were announced and the events connected with the victory related.

The mayor then cut the strings, and had it not been for the timely assistance of bystanders, would have received a severe fall. He was quickly revived and an investigation commenced, when it was discovered that only a few shingles and other refuse was before them, and the records as far away as ever.

Legal proceedings are expected to be instituted against the new officers, although a compromise may be effected before anything is done.

MILLS OF JUSTICE

Grinding Exceeding Fast and Fine, Too. Eighty Cases Disposed Of In District Court.

Judge Dale is keeping up his record for rapid work in the district court, and the docket is dwindling with great speed. During the week which closed yesterday eighty cases were disposed of—they being jury trials, trial by court and dismissals. It is certain that this record will be kept up next week. Yesterday many defaults were taken in appeal cases from lower courts.

The case of Philip Houck vs. Louis LeRoy for rest was decided against LeRoy by a jury.

The case of White vs. McNeal, Drane and Parsons was continued. The jury failed to agree.

BEWARE OF BEGGARS.

Deserving People Given Cold Comfort By Deceitful Competitors.

While there are perhaps a few people in this city who are in poor financial circumstances, with the heads of families out of employment, there are nevertheless a number of impostors seeking aid in various ways. A number of women and children are out daily calling on certain residents of the city asking for food and clothing. No doubt some of them are in need of assistance, but there are many who beg because that is an opportunity time to do so or because they are too lazy to hustle for a subsistence.

Game in the Strip.

The settlers on the Cherokee strip will at least have an abundance of meat this winter, for on the prairie are thousands of quail, prairie chickens and pheasants, and in the timbered portions many deer. The streams are stocked with an abundance of fish, those of the buffalo and cat varieties often weighing fifty pounds and over, and millions of ducks and geese are beginning to settle upon the lagoons.

To Liquidate Indebtedness.

The ladies of Barnes Chapel, M. E. church, have organized a parsonage, church and ministers' aid society, and a vigorous effort is being made to pay off all indebtedness and finish the parsonage, which when done will be a pleasant and spacious home for the pastor and his family.

Death of Will Crawford.

The community of Norman is mourning on account of the untimely death of Will C. Crawford, which occurred this morning at 2 o'clock. The deceased was but a trifle over thirty years old, but was one of the most prominent of Norman's citizens. His personal popularity was unassailed, at various times having occupied nearly every minor office within the gift of his fellowmen. At the time of his death he was cashier of the Citizens Bank of Norman. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and A. O. U. W. W. Society.

They snatched Fred Shukert, the 12-year-old clerk, after decoying him to a back room, but he recovered from the blow and gave the alarm before they succeeded in stealing anything.

BANDITS MAKE A MISS.

A Freight Train Held Up in Arkansas by Mistake for an Express.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 21.—Train robbers planned to hold up the Illinois passenger train which left Fort Smith, Ark., at 10:30 o'clock this morning, but a freight which preceded was mistaken for the passenger and held up instead. Five or six officers were placed on the following passenger, but no effort was made to stop it.
